

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 19, 1862.

BOSTON.

Such is the caption in a city daily to a late telegraphic despatch from Washington. The heading in itself is nothing, and were it not for the fact that it was made the subject of a whining complaint in the same paper, it would have passed unnoticed. Judging from his late labors, the very consistent champion of canonized prostitution, has given up all of his arguments to find a point as to do it altogether, and returned to the slanderous trade of base insinuations and low innuendos against the opposers of his unlawful and unchristian practices. From a careful perusal of his column, for more than a year past, we have been enabled to glean only the following "arguments" in favor of polygamy: "It was a revelation to Joseph Smith promulgated by Brigham Young"; "It is not so bad as the vile practices of crime, as gleaned from the New York Police report"; "Milton, the great Theologian and poet defender of polygamy, so proclaims it"; "Such is the modern-john of this learned expounder of the 'true religion,' which he pretends to be the very foundation of his religious belief." Verily, the Government is at fault for not recognizing its claimants! Surely, nothing but the deepest prejudices, and blindest ignorance could resist such powerful reasoning! And then his claims of loyalty, interwoven upon equally strong, though undiscerning rebukes, should be noted: "She was impartial in her sympathies, who proposed equal distribution to both sides." She supported the United States troops out here, and furnished food to the starving emigration. It is true that she "conventionized" the prior of provisions to so high a degree that Government was forced to purchase in Saint Louis; but that only established her claims to loyalty, as it showed the high estimation she placed on Government currency! True, she did not contribute to the Sanitary fund, but that had no troops in the field, and did not wish to rob other contributions of the credit of taking care of their own soldiers! "Oh yes?" Utah is forth, and suddenly competent to take care of herself, as witness, her grand military organization, based upon "no form of law, and with a 'Lieutenant-General' at its head." It might be dangerous, you see, in other territories and all of the S.A., if it was under the control of the Governor!—Nay why should Congress defeat the Utah bill? Have not the people the right to whatever they ask for? Besides, Government should be politic in the matter. Have not the people lately been "counseled" to become citizens as soon as possible, and did not some of the bishops take their entire Wards in a grand procession, with flags and banners, down to the Court house, standing as God-fathers to this offspring of loyalty? What matters it if they did refuse to take the oath, saying they were English and didn't want to become Americans—did not the Bishops tell them: "It is no matter what you want, Brigham Young wants you to become citizens?" Is it politic for Government to allow stumbling blocks in the way of such people as such a time? Only suppose that "this people" should absolutely refuse to be citizens and claim the protection of the British Lion—what would be the fate of the II American? And we would like to know? Besides, have not the people shown of late that they are the sovereigns and fully capable of self-government? Witness the result of the last election:

Whole-number of votes cast, 2,780.

Now comes for a choice:

Polygamous Smith, Esq., has 2,780, and is elected! "And if any opposition had been given, many more votes would have been cast!"—The Telegram. Great reputation of the bladders of the "one-man power" in Utah! Bring out the bladders and squish the whole-doodie! Surely, the Government will not dare to trifle with the wishes of such a people! Let us have a good return!

"Why shouldn't the Utah bill pass?" Did not the Mormons first discover gold in California, open up the entire Pacific coast to the energy and enterprise of the people of America, and then, abandoning their possessions and settlements there, go to a better civilization, native to the black hills and desert wastes of Utah? And has not California since become a State, famous now, well, as the number one state?—The Telegraph.

GENEVA, Feb. 19.

—The New York Tribune, Feb. 19.

The Philadelphia Bulletin specially says, the President's veto message on the Freedmen's Bureau bill is very elaborate, covering the whole subject in full detail. He appears to the bill in every shape and form and believes many of its features to be unconstitutional. Says the publication: "The bill ought to be adopted, while Southern States are not represented. Think there is too much of the spirit of the bill in the bill before the Legislature. Enters into a full discussion of his reconstruction policy, and the various important features of the bill, and approves it."

NYC, Feb. 19.

There is no essential change in commercial business, which is generally depressed. But little doing in foreign markets, and therefore in general goods brought about, dull and middle classes steady. Pork closes a shade firmer. Wine, spirits, &c., showing a slight improvement in business. There is a great demand for prime qualities, large sales being effected to dealers, who have a large stock of choice wine, & a cent gold, in bond, a stock market to general trade, developing a great demand for foreign wines, & Marquis de Saxe, stock, however, remained at par. The price of tea, however, has risen to 200 cents per lb.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.

The President, after stating his objections to the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, as an unconstitutional measure, further, to the effect that it would interfere with the Government in the administration of justice, cannot be allowed to stand. It is, however, possible he should visit Europe in one or two years.—Washington Chronicle.

What unheard of calamities the Nation sweeps from the east! You soon will have plenty of leisure to follow out your recently declared intentions of studying the Constitution of the United States, and posting yourself in regard to the "rights" and "duties" of American citizens.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

GENERAL TO THE DAILY UNION HERALD.

TELEGRAMS—TELEGRAPHIC

2000 WORDS.

THE SENATE yesterday passed the bill of Congress, relinquishing whatever right the United States may have had in the Pacific Northwest, and confirming the title of the State of Oregon to the land.

The Senate, yesterday, confirmed the appointment of John Brooks, Naval Officer, to the command of the U.S. Frigate "Constitution," San Francisco.

Mr. Wilson introduced a concurrent resolution to disarm and disband the militia of the rebellion States.

Mr. Wilson read letters from General Thomas, Swasey, Hartshorn, and others, in the Gulf States, which represented that there was danger of the extinction of the negro race, and the exhalation of Northern men, if the militia should not be suppressed by United States forces.

Mr. Howard introduced an amendment to the representation bill giving the right of way to the citizens of African descent who have been enrolled in the army, navy, or marines, and write, and are possessed of property to the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars.

Mr. Stewart introduced a bill concerning the amount in the public domain for the construction of highways, roads, and bridges, and authorizing the same to be appropriated to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Conness introduced a bill to grant the rights of way through the public domain for the construction of highways, roads, and bridges, and authorizing the same to be appropriated to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Raymond presented a memorial from the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, for the appropriation of $200,000, for the removal of obstructions in the harbor of that city.

The House, in discussing the deficiency of the appropriation bill, adopted clauses appropriating $250,000 for light-houses, and because of the Pacific coast; making a special appropriation of $200,000 for establishing a beacon light at Santa Barbara Landing.

The Post Office appropriation bill, reported yesterday, includes $250,000 for steamship service between San Francisco, New York, and $200,000 for the transportation of mails to California, and the amount of $200,000 was made the special order for Thursday afternoon.

At 10 o'clock last night, though before the Supreme Court to impound the settlers of the United States Marine Hospital Reservation at San Francisco, will be dismissed.

February 13.

Mr. Rogers introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House passed a bill directing the Secretary of the Navy to place in the disposal of the company, now laying American and Mexican Telegraph, in accordance with its original charter.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics employed by or in behalf of the Federal Government. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a bill to reduce the amount of postage paid for books and newspapers. Referred

ALL SO

"The P. T. B. S. From every side comes the word, 'What have you got?' And when they ask, we say, 'We have the whole lot now.'"

Miracles.

Part of myself and all the things the light of life shines upon—these are mine and mine only. This ledge, and by this word are aptly named. Lingering, watch the coming of the night, and you will know where to go.

For some unknown symbol of the world, which seems almost as grand as those.

The prophet wrote of old in Palestine! Come with him, take the shaft of his bow, and shoot it at the rising sun. The rising sun and archipelagoes, and great cloud continents of sunset seas.

CONS.—Suppose the ornithological emblem of the United States was taken sick; why would it be contrary to law? Because it would be ill eagle.

HARD ON YOUNG DOCTORS.—A young doctor, practising in the environs of Paris, was called in by a small shopkeeper to see her child, suffering from sudden illness. He gave a prescription, and away, and called again two days after. The woman met him on the threshold, wringing her hands, with her face bathed in tears. "How is the child?" "Dead," was the repeated answer. "Dead, what with it?" "The measles," gasped the weeping mother. "Measles!" shuddered the doctor. "Wretched woman, you have killed your child. If you had only told me that it was the measles, I could have prescribed for it directly."

20000.—Let the wife only understand and have faith in her true position—that of woman "the helper"—and she needs neither great gifts, nor an expansive mind, nor extraordinary beauty, to be always charming to her husband, and while she walks by his side to—"Fill all the store with music." In being literally his "help-meet" she becomes the beautifier and healer of his life. If the vine about the oasis, to which she is often compared, be truly her emblem, it is because she binds together broken branches and drapes with verdurous loveliness the withered branches.

The People's Store!

F. AUERBACH & BROS.,
Importers in
Staple and Fancy Merchandise,
Dry Goods, Groceries, Yankees
Notions, Boots and Shoes,
Clothing, etc.

We have on hand a superb stock of
CALIFORNIA BLANKETS, of the finest quality, which we offer at little over original cost. Our stock of Boots and Shoes, Clothing, &c.
is of the finest style and best finish.

TEA AND TOBACCO

We supply brands of tea imported.
J. W. REED & CO.,
West Side Temple St., G. E. Clay.
Call and see me.

E. B. Shoebridge,
Special Notice.

Pioneer Line!

T. D. Brown & Son,

Have received a portion of their

New Goods

From the System. The best of

Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Cigars,

And other Groceries.

We boast of their quality, and will sell at a moderate profit, but not at

Ten per cent under cost!

We have a choice selection and great variety of Goods on the road hither, within a short distance.

actly

Proclamation!

To the People of Salt Lake and Vicinity.

WE the undersigned, take pleasure in announcing to the gents and ladies of this city and surroundings, that we have opened our Extensive Stock!

of DRY GOODS,

Groceries,

Ladies' Ware,

Gents' superior clothing,

Furnishing Goods,

and all Yankee Notions, etc. etc.

with a stylish Stock of

Fancy Trimmings,

Embroideries,

Nubias,

Soutage, every shape and

COLOR,

WOOLEN GOODS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS.

At the New Building, just over south of the California Telegraph Office, east side of East Temple Street.

—
Come one, come all!

WILKINSON & FENN,

MONTANA RESTAURANT,

BY L. MORRIS,

listed in the telephone book.

PROVISIONS AND SPICES,

CITY MARKET,

Everything in the Provision and Grocery Department on hand.

—

ALL SO

BEST WHOLESALE

DRUG STORE,

HOLLADAY & HALEY,

DRUGGISTS,

At the office of the Standard Line, Street

Salt Lake City, will pay the highest rates for

GOLD DUST AND COIN.

Dust bought for Coin or Currency

Cash paid for Governor's Vouchers

Drafts payable in Coin or Currency and more.

Yankee Notions,

Hardware, Tools, etc.

Yankees, British Columbia,

Victoria, British Columbia.

Postage, Currency and Revenue stamps for mailing.

WE have opened our offices in Walker's New Building, a few doors below Salt Lake

House, and have now on sale a large stock of goods from Colorado, Utah, Montana and Idaho selected.

Dr. Brooke & Glick,

Physicians and Surgeons.

Office at Godde's Branch Drug Store,

Just off Scott's Carr & Co's, S. L. City,

Nov. 1st.

DRUG & MERCANTILE CO.

VIRGINIA CITY, Idaho.

DOVER CITY, Colorado.

ATCHISON, Kansas.

PORTLAND, Oregon.

YANKEE NOTIONS,

Hardware, Tools, etc.

YANKEE NOTIONS,

Hardware, Tools, etc.